The house, with three bright bedrooms, is perfect for both a family and those who want to have additional space for office or guests. The bathroom, renovated and functional, complements a home designed for daily comfort. The kitchen Italian-style, modern and well-equipped, it invites you to enjoy gastronomy at home. In addition, the private property eliminates one of the biggest concerns of urban life, while the storage room offers extra space to keep the home always tidy. Located just minutes from metro and train stations, as well as downtown shopping and supermarkets, this property not only offers a home, but a comfortable, well-connected lifestyle and full of history. And if you're drawn to the sea,...(Ask for More Details!)
